

Paraphrasa (1947)

of the old melody of the hymn: Ljómur

orig. for organ

Jógvan Waagstein (1879-1949)

arr. for guitar: Ólavur Jakobsen

for solo guitar

⑥ = D

ff

sul ponticello 3 sul tasto (dolce) nat.

mp pp mp

3 3

sul ④ sul tasto (dolce)

mf pp mp

nat. sim. 3 3 3

f

3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3

37

f mf

46

mf

55

Cresc.

64

ff

D.C. al Segno e poi la Coda

Coda

73

f rit. molto ff

Paraphrase of the melody of the hymn "Ljómur" which was written by the great Icelandic hymnist, the bishop Jón Árason, who being the greatest antagonist of the reformation, was beheaded with his two sons at "Skálholt" in the year 1550.

Both the hymn itself and the melody have been preserved and sung in the Faroe Islands to this day